

NO DECISION IN HOSPITAL FIGHT

Action of Legion Convention at Enid Has No Binding Effect

TULSA STILL IN RACE

Tulsa Delegates Fought to Prevent Vote on Hospital for Ex-Soldiers

That there is still hope for the locating of the state hospital for disabled ex-service men in Tulsa and that the endorsement of Oklahoma City as a site by the American Legion, department of Oklahoma, at Enid Tuesday does not by any means make Tulsa's bid for the hospital useless, was the statement of members of Joe Carson post upon their return yesterday from the state convention.

Local legionnaires characterized the endorsement as more or less meaningless, inasmuch as it was made without due consideration and is not even binding on the legion's representative on the commission of three. The hospital situation was made a political football on the convention floor by the Oklahoma City delegation, was the charge of the Tulsans, who fought a hard, but losing, fight to prevent action being taken on the matter on the ground of its impropriety, a stand in which they were backed up by posts of Muskogee, Kingfisher, Okmulgee, and others.

Action Only Indorsement.

The action on the hospital site amounts practically only to an indorsement of Oklahoma City as to geographical location and railroad facilities, in the opinion of T. Austin Gavin, one of the 20 delegates from Joe Carson post. "I don't believe that a convention can properly act upon such a matter, as such action requires snap judgment and does not take into consideration the needs and the merits of the site. The commission will undoubtedly approach the subject from an all-round standpoint and that leaves Tulsa as good a chance as any other city, all else being equal."

E. Fred Johnson and W. L. Eggleston, Jr., were named delegates from the department of Oklahoma to the national convention opening at Kansas City the last of October. It developed that four trainloads or more will go from this state to the convention. H. B. Davis of Duncan, new department commander, told the Tulsa delegation yesterday of his intention to visit here shortly.

Mrs. J. W. Whitney and Mrs. E. C. Jones, both of this city, fulfilled their duties as district president and district secretary, respectively, at the meeting. Rev. C. B. Morris, Tulsa district superintendent, participated in the opening afternoon program, and Mrs. Morris also attended the meeting. At last night's session the principal speaker was Mrs. Melva Livermore of Chickasha, a returned missionary from India.

Plan Weekly Band Concerts.

MIAMI, Sept. 28.—The recently organized Miami band, under the leadership of Fred Kreyer, gave a concert Saturday night which was much enjoyed and highly complimented. The chamber of commerce and citizens generally are strongly supporting the band boys, and it is stated that hereafter a concert will be given every Thursday night.

WANAMAKER IS HAPPY

Big Business Man Says He Has More Faith in America Today Than Ever Before in Past.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Discussing the business outlook today, John Wanamaker, the New York and Philadelphia "merchant prince," said:

"I have more faith in America today and more expectation of the future than at any time in my 65 years in business life. In our stores we are expanding, rather than retrenching. I am asked 'why are you getting fine goods to the fore, such as jewelry and silver from the Orient, when business is slow?' My reply is 'I have faith in America.'"

"There will be plenty of work for all if we show our faith. It is a mistake to hold back, to relax, to wear blue glasses, to hold money in our pockets, rather we should make needed improvements, build and rebuild, buy and sell, putting to work our money, energy and brains, everything we have to make the country busy and prosperous."

"Instead of curtailing advertising, our stores are enlarging it. Instead of standing pat, we are making improvements, which gives work to many mechanics, both day and night. We mean to be ready for the good times just ahead."

RECOVER STOLEN GOODS

Detectives Get Six Suits of Clothing From Two Negroes.

A. F. Smith and Loretta Williams, negroes, were arrested by detectives Henry Carmichael and Ed Erwin Wednesday evening in possession of six ladies suits valued at $150 and more each, which are believed to have been stolen from Bristol, in a recent robbery there.

The pair was arrested on East Archer street as the officers were looking for other stolen goods. Many of the suits are of imported cloth and are of very expensive materials. Smith had a fine gold watch and a large amount of money when arrested by the officers. Bristol authorities are expected to arrive soon to identify the seized goods.

LONSDALE IS GUILTY

One of Three Youths Charged With Auto Larceny Must Serve 15 Years in Pen; Pal Pleads.

A verdict of guilty was returned against R. E. Lonsdale by a jury in district court late Wednesday evening on a charge of auto larceny. His punishment was fixed at 15 years in the state penitentiary.

Lonsdale, L. D. Baily and Jess Foster were jointly accused of the theft of a Ford roadster from R. E. Mitchell of Owasso, last June. After the case was called for trial Wednesday morning Foster pleaded guilty. Judge Redmond S. Cole announced that he would pass sentence on Foster Friday morning.

Lonsdale went to trial after the defense had asked for a severance. Baily will probably be tried Thursday morning. Elmer Lokenhill, also implicated in the theft, was a state's

ADVANCE PARLEY TABOOED

Uncle Sam Will Not Participate in Preliminary Armament Talk.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—The United States will not be drawn into any preliminary controversies with regard to the outcome of the armament conference, it was officially stated at the state department today.

This statement was made when comment was sought on statements made by foreign leaders predicting an uneasy way for the conference without Russian representation. The administration, it was stated, will not make reply to any statement with regard to the conference, but will make reply to any line of the agenda laid down.

US CARTRIDGES AND SHELLS

This priming won't ruin your rifle

Your rifle is your friend. You treat it as something more than cold metal and wood. You couldn't sleep if you had used it and not cleaned it thoroughly.

Buy only US Cartridges. They have a special non-fouling, non-erosive priming. Every expert knows that ordinary priming causes rust and in time digs little "pits" that destroy the accuracy of the bore.

If you value your rifle, treat it well. Give it the ammunition that will protect it from the ravages of rust.

Money back if not satisfied with US Cartridges.

Do you know what constitutes a strong constitution?

TO have sound, healthy nerves, completely under control, digestive organs that are capable of absorbing a hearty meal, means you have a strong constitution! Your general attitude is one of optimism and energy.

But an irritable disposition, frequent attacks of indigestion, and a languid depression, indicate your system is not in correct working order.

Probably you are not eating the proper food. Probably the nutritious elements are not being supplied to your system in the proper way.

Grape-Nuts is the wholesome, delicious cereal that promotes normal digestion, absorption and elimination, whereby nourishment is accomplished without auto-intoxication. A mixture of energy-giving wheat and malted barley comprise the chief elements of Grape-Nuts. A dish at breakfast or lunch is an excellent, wholesome rule to follow.

You can order Grape-Nuts at any and every hotel, restaurant, and lunch room; on dining cars, on lake boats and steamers; in every good grocery, large and small, in every city, town or village in North America.
